- The facilities were officially opened by senior representatives of Jumeirah Golf Estates, the European Tour and world-class golfers, Rafael Cabrera-Bello and Lee Westwood.

Dubai, UAE, 18 November 2016: The new phase of the award-winning Jumeirah Golf Estates Clubhouse is now open for business, marking the introduction of a brand new F&B concept and 300-capacity events space to Dubai.

Located at the heart of Jumeirah Golf Estates, the 12,150m<sup>2</sup> Clubhouse has been expanded to include its fourth F&B outlet and first-of-its-kind banquet space in the community. The opening comes as the developer continues to invest in expanding its lifestyle proposition to community residents, golfers and visitors.

The opening was made official during an event attended by members of the Jumeirah Golf Estates executive team including, Chief Executive Officer Yousuf Kazim. Also in attendance were Keith Waters, Chief Operating Officer of the European Tour, and world-class golfers Rafael Cabrera-Bello and Lee Westwood.

Speaking during the opening, Yousuf Kazim, CEO of Jumeirah Golf Estates said, “As a developer, we are constantly listening to the market, and we are responding by introducing additional lifestyle amenities to our community of 700 families and counting. While the new F&B concept and large events space represent additional facets of our revenue generation strategy, these are also paramount in our commitment to upholding our award-winning status as a residential and lifestyle destination of choice.”

F&B Concept – The Sports Bar

Open to the public from 21 November, the new F&B concept is complete with golfing memorabilia and boasts an extensive craft hops selection, with foodie favourites including roasted prime spare ribs and crispy tempura calamari. A perfect place to gather with friends to follow Cabrera-Bello’s latest moves, watch the next Six Nations or catch up on the latest Premier League action, the venue’s various big screens ensure there is not a bad seat in the house.
